

Report of Rally on Health Awareness and Female Feticide

Attendance 41 on 8th Sept 2014

Dr. D. Y. Patil Knowledge city and Pune Doctors Charitable Trust (PDCT) cordially organized a Health awareness and Female Feticide Rally on 8th Sept 2014 on the occasion of Ganapati Visarjan. The objective of Rally is to make people aware about Female feticide and Cleaning. Around 32 students from our college had taken part in the Rally. Students performed Street Play on Female feticide and evocated people to stop the same. Students also had dedicated a dance as the occasion of Ganesh Visarjan. The idea of spreading social awareness message in Ganesh Visarjan rally is remarkably good. And PDCT came up with the idea. Dr. D. Y. Patil knowledge city had welcome idea and implemented the same with an enthusiastic support of students. Students have prepared for rally in 2 days only. That shows their energy and feeling of binding with society. Students of DYPKC properly used their skills and knowledge to interact with people. By this way they succeeded in bridging the gap between society and youth.

Crowd also appreciated the efforts of students by their applause. Students started spreading their enthusiasm right from 10am in morning and without letting it fed out they performed till 5pm. They conveyed the message of health awareness and female feticide to bring 'Parivartan' in the society.

Wooooowww..... "Parivartanam" this word Make me feel special coz Parivartanam is A Heart of DYPSOE. And recently Parivartanam organized huge Rally in Ganpati Visarjan with Pune Doctor Charitable Trust & I participated in the rally as a member. This was my first experience to perform in front of huge crowd of Pune. And it's helped me to build my confidence Level at great extent. I learnt so many things from parivartanam like How to perform act handle a team etc. So Thanks a lot Parivartanam and Dr. D. Y. Patil School of Engg team, and special thanks to Avinash sir. I would also like to thanks our Director Sir for supporting and forming the group. Love u all. And I know one day Parivartanam will be Going on sky.

I've participated in many events like marathon, DJ war, etc. and even enjoyed them. But the Rally conducted on Ganpati Visarjan was the best ever. It is really amazing to showcase our talent in between a huge crowd of Pune-kars. All the team mates in our group PARIVARTANAM were very cooperative and friendly. Because of them our rally turned out to be a success. There were many doctors too with us to aware the people around about two major trending topics. First is to make Pune Clean and Green. And second is to Save Girl Child by the means of slogans and street play. It was simply a memorable event and PARIVARTANAM group is awesome.

Frist time i gone through such rally and it's a life time experience for me. So many things during this period i learned and found it helpful for me. Coordination and management was very nice and besides that we have fun too. College gave us very good oppourtunity to show talent among us. I am happy and honored to be in group like Parivartanam.

For us it was really a good opportunity and a wonderful experience, as we were able to live this beautiful, colorful festival, enjoy it, and be a part of this celebration through our college rally "Dr. D. Y. Patil Knowledge City" through "Pune Doctors Charitable Trust", setup under the fourth Maanacha Ganpati i.e. Tulshibaugh Ganpati at Tulsibaugh Trust". We had organized a play and dance to spread awareness about female feticide topic. For that purpose we'd also prepared various posters, banners and slogans to convey our message. Our play and dance received huge response from crowd and were really pleased with our performance. By seeing this we breathe a sigh of relief and were satisfied with our hard work and it came fruitful. This experience boosted our confidence and encouraged us. From this experience we learnt many new and essential things such as how to bind people with our play how attract their attention. We also had lots of fun and enjoy each and every movement. This all experiences will really be helpful in our future. I would like to thank to our Director Sir, College management, Avinash Pingle sir and all the member of this group for giving us this opportunity and their valuable support.

Vote of Thanks:

I would like to thank Mr. Pravin Patil sir (Chief Admin Officer, DYPKC) for choosing Parivartanam for the rally. Without him Parivartanam may not be in. I would like to thank Mr. Ajay Lall for his valuable support and arrangement. And finally, to begin something we need a spark hence Parivartanam is thankful to Dr.S.S.Sonavane for that spark and encouragement.

Without his valuable support the event may not be this grand.
